

Killer Green!

And irregular daily dedicated to i14 Worlds fun Mon 20 August

Lindsay Irwin now leads the I-14 Worlds

Sunday's Unsettling bit of Topsy Turvey

The Partington's had a slight parting today. Their rudder blade foil went on flop about. The foil essentially failed where it joined the rudder. Did that effect their speed? Andy said, "Cost about 20 boats. It makes a huge difference" A 25th is a hard finish to eat. Dropped them back to 8th and perhaps at the mercy of the throwout which starts after 6 races. They've a replacement blade and foil.

Germany's George Borkenstein and Eike Dietrich took a 3rd & moved into 2nd. Maybe they're just in it for the beer.

So who picked up the slack? Aussies Dave Hayter with Trent Neighbor. According to Dave they did "a middle to the pin start, went left $\frac{3}{4}$ then up through the middle." 3rd at the weather mark "Neal and Ed put it in the pond." Things held steady until the second weather rounding. "The Partingtons were leading. We made the wing mark. They didn't --had to drop the kite.

First at the bottom and just sailed away from there." Dave's most fun was getting the gun Lindsey Irwin & Andrew Perry took 2nd on the day. Moving them into first. Enthusiastic German muscle men Georg Borkenstein & Eike Dietrich were 3rd today. This is remarkable given the old leaking boat, the ancient sails & limited budget .

3rd OA Jones & Fitzgerald "put it in the pond" today Took a 9th and are still only 3 points out of first.

The top ten are now

Lindsay Irwin (AUS)	13
Borkenstein (GER)	15
Jones (GBR)	16
FitzGerald(GBR)	19
Krstic(AUS)	22
Hayter (AUS)	23
Alexander(AIUS)	24
Partington(GBR)	27
Pattison(GBR)	33
Sloss (West Aus)	37

The top 'Merican is Mikey Radziejowski (with Evan Sjosted) in 11th.

Just how edgy was it? crewman Trent said, "we weren't doing tactical calls. --Just trying to survive. General opinion was "Not as bad as yesterday." Lighter chop and lighter breeze.

Still the unforgiving Demon snapped one sprit right at the bow. Others came in a tad bit early saying things like: "When they say SF is a windy venue, they ain't wrong." "Bungies broke & we were getting frustrated.” “Too dangerous out there –nothing broke.” Another commented he was “a Fat and out of shape pickup crew.” The classic “Because we [expletive deleted past tense copulative verb] Up.” Then the all time mystical, somewhat Zen Koan like “We’re OK, no damage. Our dropping out was premeditative.” Please meditate on this carefully.

Andy Fitzgerald & Rich Dobson In 4th OA 19 points total

24 points --Alexander in 7th

The Gong Show coming in. RYC has a lovely protected breakwater –maybe 100 yards from dock, dolly and the hard. Still once inside the relative flat water safety of the breakwater, the wind angle required an excruciatingly precise jibe. For late arrivals that jibe turned into one continuous Gong Show. One after another exhausted racer did the 90° hoochi-koochi. Some were so worn out the crashboats gave succor –which was understandable and still somewhat embarrassing because of the extensive gallery of i-14 aficionados watching on the Richmond Yacht Club upper deck while enjoying the cocktails and still fully empathizing with the swimming crew. Thanks goodness no East German judges were in attendance rating those crashes with number placards.
